

Internship Program

PAY IT FORWARD

Berkeley College[®]

Your potential is our promise.[®]

Berkeley College empowers students to achieve lifelong success in dynamic careers.

Berkeley College has been preparing students for successful careers since 1931. Times have changed, but our “students first” commitment has not. Everything we do is designed to help students achieve professional and personal success. Berkeley College offers career-focused programs, supportive professors with real-world industry knowledge, hands-on learning through our internship programs, and a variety of supplemental programs and activities.

Why hire an intern?

- Fresh perspective on your business, strategies, and plans
- Extra set of hands that can increase productivity
- Helpful for your company culture as well as the continued learning of the student
- Aids students in your community and enhances local workforce as a whole
- Gain brand ambassadors for your company to help spread the word
- Assist in preparing the future
- Pay it forward!

Berkeley's internship program

- Many Berkeley College programs include an internship, job-related assignment, or practicum for a valuable learning experience.
- Students receive academic credit for the internship, including participation in an online internship class.
- Students intern approximately eight hours per week and are required to complete a minimum of 120 hours during the semester.
- All internship hours, including projects and assignments, must be under the direct supervision of the internship employer and on location.
