
Berkeley College Consumer Information Disclosures

UNDERGRADUATE STUDENTS 2026 WINTER SEMESTER

Notice of Availability of Institutional and Financial Aid Information

Federal law requires colleges to notify students (current and prospective) and associates (current and prospective) of specific consumer information available to them and how to obtain it. This summary is provided periodically to current students and associates via email. Please direct any questions and/or requests for paper copies of specific institutional or financial aid information to the Legal Department (Legal@BerkeleyCollege.edu). This summary is also available online at: <https://berkeleycollege.edu/pdf/undergraduate-consumer-informationdisclosures.pdf>

Student Body Diversity

Information about diversity statistics by gender and age, along with the percentage of Federal Pell Grant recipients, is available online at: <https://berkeleycollege.edu/about/at-a-glance/index.html>

Price of Attendance • Withdrawals and Refunds • Textbooks & Supplies

Information about the price of attendance, including tuition and fees, textbooks (eTexts), supplies, field trips, other classroom-related expenses, transportation, estimated room and board costs (for students not living in Berkeley College facilities), and personal expenses, along with information about withdrawals and refunds is available online at:

Degree programs: <https://berkeleycollege.edu/catalogs/undergraduate-2025-2026/admissions/undergraduate-degree-program-tuition-fees-2025-2026/index.html>

Certificate programs: <https://berkeleycollege.edu/catalogs/undergraduate-2025-2026/admissions/certificate-program-tuition-fees-2025-2026/index.html>

Most programs of study at Berkeley College utilize eTexts. Charges for eTexts and print textbooks (and to a lesser extent supplies) are included in the tuition charge for most courses at Berkeley College. In compliance with federal regulations, students may choose, under certain circumstances, to opt out of the otherwise mandatory eText/book fees (and supply fees, if applicable) included in the price of tuition. Detailed information about the eText and Supplies OptOut Policy and related forms is available online at the two links above.

A few programs at Berkeley College still use print textbooks. Students in programs where print textbooks are used have the right to obtain them (as well as supplies) from other sources, so long as they meet the requirements for the course. In order to receive a credit for textbooks and/or supplies that are purchased from another source, a student must request a waiver from the Department Chair by the end of week 1 of the start of the term. See the two links above for more information. Purchase and pricing information for print textbooks and supplies is available from the Berkeley College Store at BerkeleyStore.BerkeleyCollege.edu.
